

Nepal, the residence of the Giants in Royal Enfield

13 days / 12 nights

A Himalayan route that will allow you to discover this country with 1000 riches, the cradle of Buddha. On the handlebars of a Royal Enfield, you will navigate between jungle and mountain, it is a real adventure that awaits you. From Kathmandu to Mustang through the Terai region, you will discover the Chitwan jungle, the different ethnic groups and their emblematic villages without forgetting the countless summits that support the Nepalese sky.

This trip will show you breathtaking landscapes, the highest peaks in the world, the Dhaulagiri, the Annapurna and you may even be able to see Everest, those giants that will make you feel tiny.

A 13-day trip for adventurous bikers in search of dazzle.

YOUR PROGRAM

Day 1 - Arrival in Kathmandu

Arrival at Kathmandu airport (Tribhuvan International Airport), transfer to the hotel and rest before the big adventure

Day 2 - Start of the road trip: Bhaktapur Changu Narayan & Nagarkot (40 km)

Getting started with motorcycles early in the morning and a short day sightseeing: We leave for the sumptuous pedestrian city of Bhaktapur, 15 km from Kathmandu, the most beautiful of the three imperial cities of the valley. Morning visit and after lunch, we leave the agglomeration of Kathmandu to climb to the viewpoint of Changu Narayan where we will visit the temple of Vishnu. Continue to Nagarkot mountain resort at 2100 m altitude 32 km from Kathmandu, famous for its view of the Himalayan range.

Day 3 - Nagarkot - Naubhise -Daman (125 km)

After enjoying the sunrise on the Himalayan range.

First big step after leaving Namo Buddha we cross Dhulikhel then the agglomeration of Kathmandu and leave the valley by the neck of Tangkot. Descent in laces until Naubhise (1100 m) then up to the hills of Daman at 2300 m.

Day 4 - Daman – Hetauda – Chitwan (135 km)

Day 6 - Chitwan – Tansen (160 km)

After a walk in the jungle at sunrise we take the road that rises again when we turn north after Butwal. We are in the ancient kingdom of Palpa and the Siddharta Highway that we borrow is considered one of the most beautiful of Nepal for its panoramas during the crossing of the chain of Mahabharath. Visit and overnight in Tansen

Day 7 - Tansen – Pokhara (125 km)

We continue north on the Siddhartha Highway which crosses the Syangja Hills region and brings us to the Annapurna Gate and Pokhara City nestled on the shores of Lake Phewa.

Free Afternoon...

Day 8 - Pokhara – Beni – Kalapani (2600 m) – (125 km)

We take a partially tarred road that joins the valley of the mighty Kali Gandaki River whose valley we are going to climb is the deepest in the world between 2 peaks of more than 8000 m, the climb starting in Beni only 600 m altitude. After the gorges of Kali Gandaki we will sleep in Kalapani at the gates of Lower Mustang.

Day 9 - Kalapani – Jomsom (2800m) – Kagbeni (3000 m) – Jarkhot (3650 m) - (54 km)

Although this is not a very long distance, today we will have the most adventurous part of our trip to go through the city of Marpha capital of the Thakali ethnic group and reach the beautiful village of Kagbeni of Tibetan culture, at the doorstep of the kingdom of Upper Mustang. Visit of the old town and the monastery.

Very short drive in the afternoon to reach the culmination of the stay and visit the Muktinath Shrine, the Muktinath Nunnery. Then we will stay in the former fortress village of Jarkhot which houses a traditional medicine institute. The landscapes today are grandiose.

Day 10 - Jarkhot (3650 m) – Tatopani (1150 m) - 70 km
