

Corsica by Motorcycle: Exceptional Roads and Luxury Hotels

8 days / 7 nights

Set off on a motorcycle journey through Corsica, along breathtaking roads and stunning landscapes. Each day takes you through mountains, wild coastlines, and charming villages. After your rides, relax in carefully selected luxury hotels, chosen for their comfort and unique character. A trip that perfectly blends adventure, freedom, and refinement.

YOUR PROGRAMME

Day 1 - Arrival in Corsica

Arrive in Bastia with your own motorcycle, or we can pick you up at the airport or port if you prefer to rent a bike from our agency. Spend your first night in Saint-Florent at a stunning 4-star hotel by the sea, offering a welcoming atmosphere and exceptional views of the bay.

Night in Saint-Florent.

Day 2 - Cape Corsica

A must-see for the day: the Cap Corse. After a hearty breakfast, you'll head along the East coast to the tip of the Cap. The winding roads offer stunning scenery, with a lunch stop in Centuri, renowned as France's top lobster fishing port.

The coast then becomes increasingly wild, with breathtaking views at every turn. You can take breaks at small secluded coves, and a stop in Nonza is a must, even just to enjoy one of Corsica's most spectacular bars.

You'll then return to your 4-star hotel in Saint-Florent, often called the "Little Saint-Tropez" of the island.

Day 3 - From Saint-Florent to Piana

Today's ride takes you from Saint-Florent to Piana, through some of Corsica's most iconic landscapes. You'll cross the Désert des Agriates, a wild area of maquis and pristine beaches, before reaching L'Île-Rousse, a charming seaside town with colorful streets.

The route continues to Calvi, with its citadel overlooking the bay, perfect for a photo stop. From there, you'll follow the coastline and mountains to Porto, famous for its cliffs and UNESCO-listed gulf, before arriving at your hotel in Piana, in the heart of this picturesque village.

Night in Piana.

Distance: approx. 230 km

Day 4 - From Piana to Propriano

Today's journey takes you from Piana to Propriano, along a route combining coastal panoramas and authentic villages. You'll pass through Cargèse, famous for its Greek and Latin churches, before reaching Ajaccio, Napoleon's birthplace, where a stop

Day 6 - Bonifacio

Free day in Bonifacio, giving you the chance to enjoy this spectacular town perched on limestone cliffs at your own pace. Stroll through the old town's narrow streets, admire the picturesque port, or explore nearby coves and beaches.

Night in Bonifacio.

Day 7 - From Bonifacio to Casabianca

Today, you leave Bonifacio and head to Casabianca, in the heart of the Castagniccia, a region renowned for its chestnut forests and authentic villages. You'll pass through l'Ospedale, offering views over lakes and surrounding mountains, then cross the spectacular landscapes of Bavella with its iconic granite spires.

The route continues through the picturesque villages of the Castagniccia, where each turn reveals lush, unspoiled scenery, before arriving at your stop in Casabianda, for a relaxing evening in the heart of Corsican nature.
