

Langhe : trekking between wines and castles

8 days / 7 nights

The journey takes place through the vineyards and the hazelnut trees plantations that have made the region famous all over the world. On the tops of the hills you'll find villages and castles and you will walk through forests and deep valleys in the High Langa.

YOUR PROGRAM

Day 1 - Alba

Individual arrival in Alba, overnight stay in 4 star hotel

Day 2 - Alba – Grinzane - Barolo

In the morning, a taxi will take you to the castle of Grinzane, here begins your journey on foot that will lead you through Gallo d'Alba and then in the middle of the vineyards of La Morra until you'll reach Barolo with its castle.

13 km /ca. 3,5 hours

Day 3 - Barolo - Novello - Monforte

Today's route runs almost entirely among the finest vineyards of Nebbiolo grapes, which yields one of the most appreciated Italian wines; initially we reach Novello with its imposing castle, then we head up to Monforte, where we can relax in the main square of the village, always buzzing with tourists and local people.

9 km/ca. 2,5 hours

Day 4 - Monforte – Cissone

Today's route takes us to Serralunga, Sinio, Roddino and then Cissone; addition to the usual rows of grapes, we meet the first hazelnut trees, typical of high Langhe and some wooded areas a little wilder. It's worth a stop in Serralunga, to visit the castle and enjoy a glass of wine.

16 km/ ca. 4,5 hours

Day 5 - Cissone, rest day

Today you can take a short circular route around the hills of this pretty village, or enjoy a little relaxation on the terrace of the agriturismo.

Day 6 - Cissone - Cravanzana

We are located in Alta Langa, famous for its hazelnuts, the landscape is characterized by extensive cultivation of hazelnut trees and the deep valley of the Belbo, which we cross, after making a stop at the beautiful church of Cerretto Langhe, to reach Cravanzana.

17 km/ ca. 5 hours

Day 7 - Cravanzana - Cortemilia

From Cravanzana start a nice stretch going down to Torre Bormida, where we cross the river of the same name, then begin a steep climb to Bergolo, one of the smallest and characteristic municipalities of Alta Langa, from here onwards we continue in the midst of the forests to Cortemilia, an ancient village dating back to the Roman Age.

12 km/ ca. 3,5 hours

Day 8 - Cortemilia

End of the services after breakfast.
