

The best of Tuscany on a Vespa

7 days/ 6 nights

Luggage transfers and nights in 3 star hotels with swimming pool included.

With the simple twist of a throttle, experience the real Italian Dolce Vita and live the spirit of freedom, fun and adventure all at once!

With this particular tour, you will be able to whizz around the three provinces of Tuscany on the back of your Vespa and discover the leaning Tower of Pisa, the fortified town of Lucca, the Piazza del Campo in Sienna, the Lucchesian hills, the Monte Pisano and the Senesi hills. Eat succulent local dishes in rustic trattorias and drink a real Italian cappuccino on the terrace of a café or taste a red Chianti wine in one of the region's wine cellars. This trip has all the rights ingredients to ensure you a most fabulous experience.

And, just to add that little extra touch of class, all nights will be spent in 3 star hotels with swimming pools.

YOUR PROGRAM

Day 1 - The hilltops of Lucca

Once you have arrived in Lucca, settle into your hotel and explore your surroundings. Your Vespa will be waiting for you in the heart of Lucca. Pick up the habits of the local Vespa drivers and park right at the bottom of all the nice monuments to be visited.

Then, during the first stage of the tour, you will head towards the hilltops of Lucca which culminate at 900m. Ride through enchanting little villages and stop there for a while to get a real flavor of the bella vita and to admire the majestic surrounding landscapes.

Distance: approximately 77km.

Day 2 - The glorious Tower of Pisa

The world-famous tower of Pisa is a must-see while in Italy, and today will be your chance to discover this surreal marble building which, against all odds, appears to defy gravity. You will also have the opportunity to explore the Piazza del Duomo otherwise known as the Piazza dei Miracoli (the Square of Miracles). Then, hop on your Vespa and head east to start climbing the Monte Pisano. Sublime panoramic views are to be admired from the heights of this glorious Italian mountain.

Distance: 71km.

Day 3 - Heading South

Head south after leaving Lucca. You will soon discover sumptuous panoramic landscapes. Then, travel all over the countryside and visit the medieval villages in the area. Have a break, go to a café and drink a real Italian cappuccino. In the evening, go for a relaxing swim in the hotel's swimming pool.
